The 728-acre Barnett Ranch property is partially within the San Vicente Corridor identified in the County's Multiple Species Conservation Program (MSCP) Subarea Plan (1997), and was purchased by the County in 2002 to be dedicated as part of the MSCP Preserve. The Preserve consists of high value natural vegetation communities that support several sensitive species including southern California rufous-crowned sparrow, loggerhead shrike, white-tailed kite, and orange-throated whiptail.
